CCPA PRESIDENT'S COLUMN:

JANUARY 2012

Greetings CCPA members!

Thanks to Frank and Pattie Wichern for hosting another wonderful holiday party. As usual, they were successful in getting us to release our inner children and get into the spirit of the season with play, laughter and lots of delicious food and drink.

My hope is that the coming year is a big one for all of us. 2012 already qualifies as an important transitional year for CCPA, as Frank Wichern has decided to step down from his Executive Committee responsibilities in April. Frank, thank you for your many years of service.

As most of you know, Frank has been involved with CCPA from the get go and has been a driving force behind the organization's identity for many years. Although he will continue to grace us with his incisive questions and irreverent humor during monthly meetings and CEUs, his absence will leave a huge void in the EC leadership (for any of you who are interested in becoming more involved - feel free to take this as a hint).

Frank's departure is spurring the EC to step up the pace of updating the organization. We are currently eliciting estimates for developing a new website that falls within our modest budget. We invite you to share your input in what features would be beneficial to the organization, the community, and your own practices. We also encourage your ideas on a new environment for our monthly meetings that maintains the collegiality but is more conducive to presentations. Our goal is to use this transition period to re-organize and re-energize CCPA so it remains professionally and personally relevant in the future.

We will be building in some time for open forum for discussion on what direction for CCPA to take in the coming months. However, as always, I welcome your ongoing input and can be reached at DrJaniceCaudill@live.com.

Happy New Year!
