CCPA PRESIDENT'S COLUMN:

FEBRUARY 2010

Greetings CCPA members!

Thanks to Marge Langteau for her presentation on the activity of the Healthcare Committee of Collin County. A reminder that they will be hosting a candidate forum on Feb 16th, 7pm, in room C104 of the CCCC Spring Creek Campus. Participating candidates: Collin County Judge David M. Smith, John Muns Collin County Commissioner Precinct 2 Jerry Hoagland (I), Cheryl Williams, Karl Voigtsberger, Ricardo Koster , Collin County Commissioner Precinct 4 Kathy Ward (I), J. Duncan Webb IV. Contact Ms Langteau at margelangteau@verizon.net if you plan to attend or wish to submit questions to the candidates.

Please note that due to the holiday weekend, we will be moving our May meeting to the third Friday of the month (21st). Also note that Dr. Karen J. Prager will be our speaker, a 3 hr presentation on her work on couples intimacy. Due to the longer presentation, May's meeting will be at the office of Dr. Wichern, and that participation will be limited. We will begin taking names for the May meeting at our February meeting. More details will follow.

We also have Kendra Dalrymple and Robbie Malone on the calendar for March, to update us on ethical issues and relationship to our state board. The board had an interesting discussion this month regarding useful (and not so useful) technologies effecting our profession, and a discussion of diagnostic categories. Anyone heard of 'post incarceration syndrome???' We are looking at making both of these discussions into future presentations. I look forward to seeing you at our February meeting (topic to be determined) and to future meetings

Respectfully; Jason Simpson, Psy.D.

SERVING WITH CCPA

As CCPA begins it's 21st year I want to thank all of our colleagues who have served on the Exec Comm and encouraged the practice of psychology in our area. CCPA has made a difference both to psychologists and our community.

CCPA thanks Gary Grossman for his tenure as President!
